PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

MERN Stack Developer with 3+ years of experience designing, building, and deploying scalable full-stack web applications using React.js, Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB. Experienced in developing production-ready e-commerce and real estate platforms with authentication, payment integration, REST APIs, and cloud deployment. Passionate about writing clean, maintainable code and delivering intuitive user experiences.

Also brings 5+ years of professional publishing experience (digital publishing, proofreading, book design), reflecting strong attention to detail and reliable project delivery — traits that carry directly into writing clean, maintainable code and managing development timelines independently.

- Implemented category/tag organization and a responsive reading experience across devices.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Frontend / MERN Stack Developer

2022 – Present

Freelance — Remote

- Designed and shipped full-stack web applications end-to-end using React.js, Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB, including the e-commerce and real estate platforms above.
- Built reusable, well-structured React components to speed up development and simplify maintenance across projects.
- Implemented centralized state management with Redux Toolkit and secured applications with JWT and Firebase Authentication.
- Managed image uploads and asset storage with Firebase Storage.
- Deployed and maintained production frontends on Vercel and backend services on Render.
- Diagnosed and resolved production issues — CORS errors, API connectivity failures, deployment misconfigurations, and MongoDB integration bugs.
- Optimized load performance and UI responsiveness across desktop and mobile.

Publishing & Book Production Specialist

2018 – Present

Freelance — Remote

- Produced professionally formatted books for print and Kindle publishing, including full layout and cover design.

- Delivered proofreading and editing services for authors and publishing organizations across Nigeria and international markets.
- Managed complete publishing workflows independently, from manuscript intake to final delivery.
